A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk: I begin by wishing all the dads today a very Happy Father's Day. May today be a glorious celebration of our fathers, both those living among us and those who have entered into the nearer presence of God. It is also a celebration of the family, and, no better way to celebrate than by making Sunday morning worship part of this special day. It is also a special day in another way, today is Trinity Sunday, the longest season of the church year. It begins today and won't end until the first Sunday of Advent (Dec. 1st). The next 5 and half months will be a celebration of the mystery of faith, and, indeed the mystery of God. Last Sunday we celebrated the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, Trinity is very much about how that same spirit is at work in the world. As I said last week, we are not mere readers of a bible story written for others many centuries ago, we are active participants in a great story, a great drama still working itself out in human history. If we believe in the power of the Holy Spirit, and the words spoken by Jesus, such as those in the gospel today – I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth... We surely must conclude that God is still at work in the world, and, that the words of holy scripture from Genesis to Revelation is not all that God has to say to us. Indeed, when we turn to John's gospel we see verses such as chapter 20 verse 30 – Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples which are not written down... or chapter 21 verse 25 – There are many more things Jesus did. If all of them were written down not even the world itself would have space for the books that would be written... Now Jesus' earthly ministry lasted about three and one half years before his crucifixion, and, we know almost nothing about his life prior to his baptism by John, except when he was teaching in the Temple at age 12, so, logically speaking one would think that not many books would be required to list all the exceptional things Jesus said and done during that time. This leads me to conclude that John was not merely referring to Jesus' earthly ministry, but to the reality of the Trinity, that Jesus was there from the beginning, as was the Father and the Holy Spirit. In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God... The same was in the beginning with God... All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. (John 1: 1-3) In this case the world would not hold the books needed to record all done by Jesus. The mystery of the Trinity is a complex one, not easy to explain in human words, and, therefore it will always be shrouded in an element of mystery. One thing we can be sure about is that God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, is still at work in our world, and, if we are to write everything down done by the Trinity since the conclusion of Revelation, we would indeed have many books. Sometimes we get so caught up in what these 66 books of scripture say that we forget that God is still causing things to be written for our learning and instruction even today. When we read a special book written by a Christian, or, sometimes even a non-Christian author, that stirs us up, maybe that's God speaking to us as well. God will not be boxed in or confined to what was already written so long ago. We worship and serve a living God, and as such, the Holy Spirit is moving among us and within us. We must use the inspired words of scripture for our spiritual edification, but we must also be open to how God is speaking to us in other ways too.

(Rev. Randy)

To all young families in our parish and community we would like to see you involved in the life of our parish family. As we gear down for the Summer, with our parish groups and activities, we need to begin to think about what resources are needed to get started again in September. We have a great need to focus on our young children and teens , and, to provide programming for them that keeps them interested and involved. We have enough young families in our community, some are already involved, most are not, that we should and can have a very active children and youth ministry. If you have a young family, or if you have opportunity to encourage a young family to get involved, please do so, it can be a big part you play in the mission of the parish.

Best Wishes to: Don Morgan on the anniversary of becoming Deacon – June 19, 1960.

Today is Trinity Sunday, the beginning of nearly 6 months of celebrating the work of Father, Son and Holy Spirit in our world and in our Church. The mystery is that there is one God, but three coeternal consubstantial persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit as "one God in three Divine Persons". The three Persons are distinct, yet are one "substance, essence or nature". While the developed doctrine of the Trinity is not explicit in the books that constitute the New Testament, the New Testament possesses a "triadic" understanding of God and contains a number of Trinitarian formulas. The doctrine of the Trinity was first formulated among the early Christians and fathers of the Church as early Christians attempted to understand the relationship between Jesus and God in their scriptural documents and prior traditions. It is very much a doctrine that we share in common with all main stream Christian churches.
