April 8th 2018 (Year B)

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From The Rector's Desk – In many parts of the Christian Church, today is often referred to as Low Sunday. There may be several reasons for this title. For some it might be that after the busy time of Holy Week and Easter Sunday, things become a bit slower, not as many people are at worship as it was the Sunday before; for others it might be that Easter Sunday is such a glorious celebration of the Risen Christ, that the next Sunday doesn't capture the same sense of excitement. Whatever the reason for this title of Low Sunday I am not a fan of it, for every Sunday ought to be a glorious celebration of the risen Lord. Easter is not a single day of the year it is an entire season that will carry us all the way through to Pentecost. More than that, we are an Easter People, our entire faith is based on the resurrection of Jesus, every Sunday is an Easter celebration, especially when we gather around the Lord's table to share in the Eucharist. I think if we can capture the joy of Easter every week there will be no such thing as a low Sunday. In today's gospel reading we hear the story of Jesus appearing among the disciples in the Upper Room shortly after his resurrection. The doors are locked, and the disciples are huddled together in fear of what might happen to them as followers of the crucified Jesus. They don't yet understand that Jesus has risen, and the thought of what might be done to them by the Jews drains every bit of courage and conviction from them. As Jesus stands before them and they are able to touch the wounds of the Cross, there is renewed in them a sense of hope and courage. Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on them and they are once again almost ready to set the world on fire with the Gospel of Christ. They don't yet rush out to proclaim the risen Lord, and one is missing from this post-resurrection appearance, Thomas, or doubting Thomas is not present, and when he is told of this experience, he refuses to believe unless he can see it for himself. Jesus appears again a week later, and, this time Thomas is present and he proclaims his belief. Jesus says that blessed are those who have not seen but yet believe. That really is the essence of faith isn't it? Believing without seeing! But we are human, and oftentimes we will not believe things unless we can experience it first. It's not entirely wrong to do so in many things of life, especially with all the news and stories that are out there on social media sites. I have seen a lot of things on Facebook that I would never believe at face value, so we can't be too harsh on Thomas. I hope that our experience of Easter will have strengthened our faith in such a way that we have no doubts, and that we have been empowered by the same Holy Spirit Jesus breathed on the disciples in the upper room, so that we can leave our own locked rooms where we huddle in fear of the world, and help set the world on fire with the gospel of Christ. (Rev. Randy)

The Annual Holocaust Remembrance organized by the Jewish Community Havura of Newfoundland and Labrador, will take place at 3:30 pm on Sunday, April 15th. This year's commemoration will feature a multi-media presentation created by Professor Robert Katz of the University of Maine at Augusta, Were the House Still Standing. This work weaves together the testimony of sixteen Holocaust survivors and liberators, using video, photography, audio, and text to ensure that their memories will endure and be shared to future generations. The memorial service will be held in the Science Lecture Theatre, SN2109, in the southwest corner of the Science Building at Memorial University. Parking is available in lot 15B adjacent to the Music School, and lot 1A in front of the Arts Building. Directions from parking lots will be provided.

Prayer Group: Would you like to join our Prayer Group? Each week someone from the group takes responsibility for leading the prayers on Sunday morning, which reflect what is happening in our world, nation, community and church. It is wonderful to have the lay people of the parish doing this part of our worship, because it truly becomes The Prayers Of The People. Rev. Russell gives leadership to the group, and, anyone interested will be welcomed and assisted in how to prepare the weekly prayers.

Sidespersons: Additional Sidespersons are needed! Currently we have about 5 teams that alternate, which means each group is on duty one week out of 5. A couple of the teams need additional help because their numbers are smaller. Duties include greeting parishioners and visitors on Sunday morning, raising and taking down the flags, passing out service books and bulletins, taking up the offering, ringing the bell, etc. If this is something you would consider doing please speak to Rev. Randy.

Rental Rates - The Vestry has approved the following rates for renting of the Parish Centre effective January 1st, 2017:

Dismissal Song:

Go now in peace; never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true.
Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above.
Go now in peace, in faith and in love.
