A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk:

Today, as we celebrate Holy Baptism, we are all to be reminded of our own baptismal promises and obligations to the whole Christian community. There was a time, not so long ago, when baptisms were mainly done privately outside of the main service of the day, and not with Holy Eucharist. Whatever the stated time on a particular Sunday afternoon all parents, with their child(ren) and Godparents would assemble at the font in the back of the church and the priest would baptize them all privately. There was no real sense of celebration by the whole faith community. In more recent years we have moved away from private baptism, except in cases of emergency if a child's health is at risk following birth, and the baptismal service becomes the most important service of the day. In fact most dioceses' now will not allow private baptism at all unless for extenuating circumstances. We are much closer now to how baptism was done by the early church – where the whole community played a vital role in preparation for baptism and on the day of baptism. It doesn't stop there either, because the nature of the service and our part in it places upon us a very important responsibility as the faith community. For example, as we baptize these children this morning, in addition to the role and responsibilities accepted by the parents and Godparents, we too accept a responsibility to the children when asked – will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these children in their life in Christ? And we will quickly respond - We will. This is not a light answer if we take it seriously, and we ought to because it's a vow, and like any vow, whether it be a wedding vow, a Confirmation vow or an Ordination vow, it is pledged above all else to God. It is no secret that the church through the centuries has not been good at placing enough emphasis on the promises of baptism, but we really do need to take them seriously.

Perhaps if we, as parents, godparents, priests and church community, were to pay more careful attention to the essence of the baptism service, and emphasized our roles more stringently, we might not have such a serious crisis in our church today when it comes to children, youth and young families. We are all together in this service of baptism today, I hope and pray that we will pay very careful attention to the part we play in it. Parents and godparents – work to honor your promises to the child you bring this morning; all of us as the worshipping community – please remember to pray for these children and families today, that God will give them grace, strength and courage to be faithful in their responsibilities.

(Rev. Randy)

Welcome to the parents and godparents that have brought the children for baptism today. Know you are welcome to be among us and this too is your church family. We pray that God will bless you today, bless your child and family, and give you the strength and wisdom to raise your child to know, to love and to serve the Lord. Please accept our invitation to bring your child to St. Philip's regularly, we would love to see you all!

To all young families in our parish and community we would like to see you involved in the life of our parish family. As we gear down for the Summer, with our parish groups and activities, we need to begin to think about what resources are needed to get started again in September. We have a great need to focus on our young children and teens, and, to provide programming for them that keeps them interested and involved. We have enough young families in our community, some are already involved, most are not, that we should and can have a very active children and youth ministry. If you have a young family, or if you have opportunity to encourage a young family to get involved, please do so, it can be a big part you play in the mission of the parish.

Please note that next Sunday's bulletin will be the only one for the month of July. Summer is a slower time in the life of the church when it comes to news and activities, as groups and organizations have recessed for the Summer. The bulletin will include the collects and relevant prayers for each of the 4 Sundays.

Please pray daily the General Synod Collect. General Synod will meet in Vancouver July 10th – 16th. Please remember the bishops, clergy and lay people that will assemble from across our great nation to represent all Canadian Anglicans. They will need our prayers, and God's divine grace to do the work before them. One very important piece will be the Marriage Canon, and another will be the election of a new primate that will no doubt be vital as we chart the waters before us. We give thanks for Archbishop Fred's guidance in the past 10 years, and wish him and his wife well in their retirement. The theme for the 2019 General Synod is – "I have called you by name". Please make this special collect a part of your daily prayer life from now until the conclusion of the Synod.

Dismissal Song

Go now in peace; never be afraid. God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

Lisa Pelley will give leadership to our band. We have been slow to get moving as we needed a person that could take responsibility for selecting the songs and leading the practices. We look forward to Lisa coming on board now with the group, and, we look forward to when they will be prepared to lead the music and song at one of our services.

Sunday School teachers will be needed for the Fall opening. We really do need some help with our Sunday School before we begin in September. We want to encourage young families in our parish to register their children and bring them each week. If you would like to help with Sunday School in September please speak to Lisa Lake or Rev. Randy.

Remember the financial needs of your parish over the Summer months. As many people disperse to enjoy the next couple months of Summer, please remember our financial obligations as a parish remain. Many people have already signed up for our Direct Giving Plan, which ensures we receive offerings on a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly basis. Some provide us with post-dated cheques This allows our treasurer to keep our bills paid up to date. We thank you for your continued generosity to the parish. As is written in 2 Corinthians 9:2 “For God loves a cheerful giver”.

Church of the Ascension, 58 Smallwood Drive, Mt. Pearl, will be hosting an Inside Yard Sale every Saturday in June, July and August, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. You can rent a single table for $20 (additional table rentals are $10). To book a table, please call Brian at 682-1844 or Rosalind at 221-8400 or email rpwilliams54@gmail.com. Or drop by any Saturday – admission is only $1. We hope to see you there!

The date for the annual Flower service is Sunday, July 28th at 3:00 pm. We opt for an afternoon service so as to accommodate those who live further away, as well as those who worship in the morning at other parishes, but have loved ones buried in our cemetery.

Mark your calendars early for The Blessing of the Backpacks – to be held on Tuesday, September 3rd. More details will become available as we draw closer to it.
