Feb. 17th, 2019 (Year C)

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk: As I reflect this week, I am reminded of the work of our own theological college, Queen's College. Today, in all three dioceses, has been designated Queen's College Sunday. A time for us to give God thanks that we have such an institution in our province committed to training and preparing men and women for ministry in our own parishes, and, indeed beyond that to other parts of the world. This year will mark 178 years since Queen's College first started to prepare people for ordination. Of course for most of these years it was only men in training, thankfully, some years ago, it, like other theological schools, realized that women too could make an equal contribution to ordained ministry, and, these days we are well beyond the debate over female priests. Queen's College has endured for so long because the leaders of the day, such as Bishops Spencer and Field, had a vision that there was a great need for parishes to have well trained clergy in them, and a place of learning was needed in order to provide an adequate number. The following is found on the college website: Queen's College is an Associate Member of the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada and is Affiliated with Memorial University. Queen's College was established in 1841 as The

Theological Institute by The Right Reverend Aubrey George Spencer, appointed in 1839 as the first Bishop of the Diocese of Newfoundland. His successor, The Right Reverend Edward Feild, re-established The Institute in a new building and named it Queen's College in honour of Queen Victoria and The Queen's College, Oxford, his alma mater. Its prime purpose was then, and is now, to offer training leading to ordination. Since that time the College has expanded its programs to include persons who wish to pursue the study of theology without seeking ordination. The Faculty consists of full-time and part-time members. A network of trained supervisors, in Clinical Pastoral Education, Supervised Practice of Ministry and Parish Internship programs, also form an integral part of the College's programming. Queen's College celebrates its past with thanksgiving and anticipates its future with hope. I too am proud to say that I received my theological education at Queen's College, as did all of our honorary priests, and most clergy who ever served in this parish. The college has continued to grow and evolve in its 178 year history, and today many lay people are also benefitting from degrees and certificates that enrich their own ministry in their parishes, and, as such the parishes are also blessed by them. If we would like to see Queen's College continue to grow, and, be around for many years to come, please use the special envelopes available today to make your financial contribution. (Rev. Randy)

A reminder to those who find themselves as patients in our local hospitals, that hospital chaplains are available for pastoral care. Please don't assume that the chaplain will automatically know you are there. As we know, hospitals are very diligent in protecting the privacy of all patients, so it may be that your name will not be on the visitation list unless you specifically ask for it to be there. When you are admitted please be very clear that you want the Anglican chaplain to visit you if that is your wish.

Planned Giving is an important teaching of the church. Our diocese has a Planned Giving consultant that would love to speak to anyone that has an interest in learning more about how this works, especially the importance of having up-to-date wills, that state explicitly what a person's last wishes are for his/her estate. You can visit the diocesan website also to get more information, and, we do have brochures on the table in the foyer. Here is some of the information you will see on the website: Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received – only what you have given: a full heart enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice and courage. Our parish has been the recipient of planned gifts in the past, from those who wanted to include their beloved church in their will. If you would like to speak to our diocesan consultant, Kevin Smith about this, please call 709-576-6697 or by Email: kevinsmith709@gmail.com

Dismissal Song:

Go now in peace; never be afraid.

God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

St. Philip's ACW will be hosting the World Day of Prayer service. To be held on Friday, March 1st. The theme is "Come – Everything is Ready" (Lk. 14: 15 – 24). At the core of the theme for WDP 2019, an invitation – Come. And to enable the response – Everything is ready. Come to praise, thank, and proclaim the kingdom of love.

The invitation is grounded in the parable that Jesus told about a great dinner which was attended by the ones called off the streets, as the ones invited excused themselves. The community formed around the table is not enough to fill the house – there is still room. Who are missing from the table in your community?

Slovenia, this year's focus, is located in Central Europe and is one of the smallest countries in that region. There are four major natural units: the Alps, the Pannonian Plains, the Dinarides, and the Mediterranean Area. Its highest mountain is the Triglav. Slovenia has two million inhabitants and the official language is Slovene, with Hungarian and Italian being co-official languages.

After declaring its independence from Yugoslavia on June 27th, 1991, Slovenia adopted a flag with three equal horizontal stripes, white, blue and red with the Slovene Coat-of-Arms in the top left quadrant: the white for Mount Triglav, the blue lines for the Adriatic sea and local rivers, and the golden stars from the coat-of-arms of Counts of Celje, a Slovenian dynastic house from late 14th century. Since its independence in 1991, Slovenia has continued to be the wealthiest and most politically open country of the former Yugoslav republics.

OTHER NOTES

Rev Randy is now receiving names for 2019

Confirmation. Bishop Peddle will be visiting our parish for Confirmation on December 1st, 2019 at the 10:30 am worship service. Once the registration process is complete the classes will begin in March. The person to be confirmed must be at least 11 years of age on or before the date of Confirmation. All those to be Confirmed should be registered no later than February 28th.

New Vestry members are needed at the annual meeting in next Sunday. Membership on the Vestry is open to anyone in the congregation with an interest in serving. Please prayerfully consider giving of your time for this very important decision-making group.

Anyone wanting to sign up for Electronic Givings there are forms available from the parish office. This takes the place of the regular offering envelopes on Sunday morning and ensures that even if you are away or can't make it on a particular Sunday the parish still receives your regular offering. This helps the parish to keep up with its financial obligations.

Please keep our building secure. We have had no major security issues, but from time-to-time it is good for us to remind everyone entrusted with a key to the building that it is the responsibility of that person to safe guard the key, and to ensure the key is never given to any unauthorized person. Please ensure that when you use the key to access the building it is your duty to ensure that all lights are turned out, and, the door securely closed and locked. If a person receives a key for a specific duty and that person is no longer in that role the key must be returned so it can be given to the new person in that role.

2018 Contribution Receipts are now available on the table in the foyer. These are the ones that you will need for income tax purposes.
Thank you to the congregation for your generous offerings to the parish in 2018 and we look forward to continued support in 2019.
Please see the included thank you letter from Rev. Randy.
