Amen

Feb. 3rd, 2019 (Year C)

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk: In today's gospel reading we find Jesus, still in the synagogue, expounding on what he quoted to them in last week's gospel reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah. Jesus had just reminded them of the purpose of "the church", which is – to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives, to give sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. Jesus ends the gospel reading by saying – today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing. In other words, Jesus is telling them that these things will be the focus of his ministry among them. At first they seem to embrace Jesus and his message, and, were amazed at his wisdom, and then, like a sudden change in wind direction, they turn on him by saying – isn't this the son of Joseph? It seems that, because Jesus comes from such humble and poor circumstances, the son of a poor carpenter, just an ordinary man among them, that somehow what he just told them is false or ought not to be given any credibility. Jesus challenges this mentality of the people and says to them – no prophet is accepted in his own town. He goes on to cite examples of great prophets who were unable to do the work of God among their people simply because the people refused to see them as men of God. This enraged the people (his own people) to the point they were going to throw him over a cliff and kill him. That is true even in our own time I'm sure. How often do we look beyond our own congregations to find people that we feel can come to lead us in some aspect of parish life and ministry, without considering that we have great men and women of God right among us; men and women of great faith, knowledge, and, experience. Traditionally, oftentimes, bishops are reluctant to place ordained clergy in their home parishes for that very reason, it can be very difficult to minister among the ones you were raised with. Thankfully, I have seen many examples of clergy successfully ministering in the parish that he/she was raised in. This is a wonderful example of looking beyond the circumstance of the person to the reality of what God can accomplish through them. I pray that we will see this as well in the ordinary lay people serving among us. Just because we know them so well, or spent our entire lives among them, does not negate the positive ministry they can have right here in our own parish. The ministry we share in common is the one we celebrate today, as we welcome into the church, these children. We should never doubt that God can use any of us in any place, and, at any time to bring good news to the poor, release to the captives, sight to the blind, etc. We should always be open to how God can use any one of us, regardless of level of education, social status, rich or poor, to accomplish his good works. As an example, we need look no further than our own parish of St. Philip's to realize that God is using a lot of people in this parish, both lay and ordained, to do a lot of wonderful ministry among us and in the wider community. (Rev. Randy)

A reminder to those who find themselves as patients in our local hospitals, that hospital chaplains are available for pastoral care. Please don't assume that the chaplain will automatically know you are there. As we know, hospitals are very diligent in protecting the privacy of all patients, so it may be that your name will not be on the visitation list unless you specifically ask for it to be there. When you are admitted please be very clear that you want the Anglican chaplain to visit you if that is your wish.

Planned Giving is an important teaching of the church. Our diocese has a Planned Giving consultant that would love to speak to anyone that has an interest in learning more about how this works, especially the importance of having up-to-date wills, that state explicitly what a person's last wishes are for his/her estate. You can visit the diocesan website also to get more information, and, we do have brochures on the table in the foyer. Here is some of the information you will see on the website: Remember that when you leave this earth, you can take with you nothing that you have received – only what you have given: a full heart enriched by honest service, love, sacrifice and courage. Our parish has been the recipient of planned gifts in the past, from those who wanted to include their beloved church in their will. If you would like to speak to our diocesan consultant, Kevin Smith about this, please call 709-576-6697 or by Email: kevinsmith709@gmail.com

A wonderful example of taking our ministry outside the building was on January 23rd, when our men's group, the ACM, decided to hold its monthly meeting at St. Luke's home, so that we could include one of the residents there. Clyde Bradbury, now a resident of St. Luke's, was a faithful member of the ACM for many years, and, he was so thrilled that we would have our meeting there just to include him. Following the meeting there was a time of fellowship with Clyde, the home provided a light snack, and some of the men played cards with him. It was a wonderful evening and truly an example of taking the church out into the community.

As we begin the second month of the new year your rector and vestry are thankful that we ended 2018 financially on track as a parish. As we try to adhere to the diocesan expectation of parishes to be more ministry and mission minded going forward, we will need to put a special emphasis on envelope givings and less on fundraising. A financially healthy parish is one that meets at least 80 – 90 percent of its annual budget by free-will givings in the offering plate. Let us seek to place our focus on offerings in our Sunday plate.

Dismissal Song:

Go now in peace; never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true.
Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

OTHER NOTES

Rev Randy is now receiving names for 2019 Confirmation. Bishop Peddle will be visiting our parish for Confirmation on December 1st, 2019 at the 10:30 am worship service. Once the registration process is complete the classes will begin in March. The person to be confirmed must be at least 11 years of age on or before the date of Confirmation. All those to be Confirmed should be registered no later than February 28th.

New Vestry members will be needed at the annual meeting in February. Membership on the Vestry is open to anyone in the congregation with an interest in serving. Vestry meets once per month, on the second Tuesday, to deal with the business of operating our parish, and to plan and carry out many things. Please prayerfully consider giving of your time for this very important decision-making group.

Anyone wanting to sign up for Electronic Givings there are forms available from the parish office. This takes the place of the regular offering envelopes on Sunday morning and ensures that even if you are away or can't make it on a particular Sunday the parish still receives your regular offering. This helps the parish to keep up with its financial obligations.

Please keep our building secure. We have had no major security issues, but from time-to-time it is good for us to remind everyone entrusted with a key to the building that it is the responsibility of that person to safe guard the key, and to ensure the key is never given to any unauthorized person. Please ensure that when you use the key to access the building it is your duty to ensure that all lights are turned out, and, the door securely closed and locked. If a person receives a key for a specific duty and that person is no longer in that role the key must be returned so it can be given to the new person in that role.

2018 Contribution Receipts are now available on the table in the foyer. These are the ones that you will need for income tax purposes. Thank you to the congregation for your generous offerings to the parish in 2018 and we look forward to continued support in 2019. Please see the included thank you letter from Rev. Randy.

St. Lawrence Parish, Portugal Cove will be holding a Valentines Dinner & Dance on Feb. 16th Music by Stan Butler, doors open at 6:30 pm – Dinner starts at 7:00 pm, cost $25.00. For tickets, please call Ines at 753-6072.
