A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk: This Sunday marks the end of the Sundays of Pentecost or Trinity, depending on which we use in following our lectionary. It is called The Reign of Christ Sunday, and, it also tells us that next Sunday is the first Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the countdown to Christmas. Reign of Christ Sunday invites us to reflect on our relationship with Jesus, to remember that he is the King of our lives, and, reigns in our hearts, or at least he should in the lives of every Christian. The world we live in today, as we know so well in the church, is not the world where our parents, grandparents and even some of us grew up in. Of course, it's the same planet earth, we know that, but our existence on it has changed dramatically, the way we live our lives bears hardly any semblance to the way life was up to a couple of generations ago. We cannot deny that, in many ways, there has been much progress, especially in the areas of technology, communications, medicine, travel and so much more. In so many ways our lives have gotten easier, but, at the same time they have also become very complicated. We live in a fast-paced world, and we are constantly bombarded with new things and new information, and the process of keeping up with it can sometimes distract of us from the joy of experiencing moments of simplistic living. It can be a real pleasure to sometimes turn off that cell phone, or whatever piece of sophisticated technology we have, and just bask in the company of our family and friends. This Reign of Christ Sunday helps us to focus ourselves on Christ, and, to realize that, despite all we have in our lives, still there is nothing more important than nurturing our relationship with God. The world has a lot of glittery stuff that can easily distract us, and, it can be hard to take our eyes off it, but, we have to be careful we don't get so captivated by it that we lose our focus on the simpler things of life. Jesus said in the gospel reading – my Kingdom is not from this world..., so, we have to be careful that it does not become ours either. That's the essence of Advent, to remind us that we are on a journey to a mighty Kingdom, not of this world, but an eternal one in the heavens. As we enjoy the wonderful things that God gives to us in this world (it is still his world), we must not forget we are but pilgrims on a journey to the Kingdom of God. When we get sidetracked, as we often do, we have to be reminded of who we are, whom we serve, and where we are going to. That's the story of Advent, these next 4 weeks will be an opportunity for us to refocus our lives, so that we can prepare ourselves for the Incarnation, the coming of God into our world in that vulnerable little baby Jesus so long ago. Despite all the ways that God could have come to us, he chose to take on our human form and come as a baby, born in a stable to Mary & Joseph in Bethlehem. Despite all the advancements since, it still remains the most glorious event of human history to this day. He still is, or, ought to be the focus of all our lives.

(Rev. Randy)

What is PWRDF? Have you ever wondered what those little blue monthly envelopes in your box of envelopes are used for? The Primates World Relief & Development Fund is described by the national church as the Anglican Church of Canada's agency for sustainable development and relief. Through the support of Anglican parishes across Canada, PWRDF makes financial and human resources available to partners around the world working to improve health, food security and livelihoods for vulnerable people.

“Working towards a truly just, healthy and peaceful world.” – Micah 6:8

In an age where we want to ensure that our charitable donations get used for their intended purposes we can rest assured that practically every dollar given to PWRDF is used to make a difference in the lives of others in need, whether that is a neonatal clinic in Burundi saving the lives of babies, or providing resources to help families all over Africa become self-sufficient by farming, or making health care more accessible to poor people in Mozambique, to name a few. This year marks the 60th anniversary of PWRDF making a difference in the world. This is made possible because you and others make a generous contribution each month in that little blue envelope, or make regular contributions online. Please keep giving so that PWRDF can continue to make a difference.

Dismissal Song:

Go now in peace; never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

St. Thomas' Anglican Church Men's ServiceClub will be hosting a Card party on November 28th at 7:30pm in St. Thomas' Church Hall. All are welcomed, please bring your own lunch and cards. Tea and coffee will be provided. Cost $5.00 per person.

As we approach the end of another year, your rector and vestry are hoping that we will end the year at least financially on target as a parish. As we try to adhere to the diocesan expectation of parishes to be more ministry and mission minded going forward, we will need to put a special emphasis on envelope givings and less on fundraising. A financially healthy parish is one that meets at least 80 – 90 percent of its annual budget by free-will givings in the offering plate. Many of the folks that do fundraising in parishes are the ones that are getting older and just don't have the energy to keep up with it. We would like to arrive at a time and place where fundraising activities will be used for outreach ministry more than meeting parish budgets out of necessity.

When do I stand, sit or kneel? Some call this "Anglican Calisthenics"... sometimes people are confused especially when others around them are kneeling, standing or sitting. but feel free to follow your preferences. Our goal is worship and not conformity, so, whatever you choose to do is right for you.

Time to get moving with our band! Rev. Randy would like to meet briefly with those who have signed up, Dr. Greg Brown, Kenny Brown, Trevor Eddy, Dr. Keegan Au and Cathy Squires, following today's worship service. In the meantime, we would love to have others join us as well.

Advent is drawing near. This Sunday is the last Sunday of Pentecost or Reign of Christ Sunday, then the first Sunday of December will be the first Sunday of Advent. Advent, by definition, means to wait for or anticipate something or someone. We have 4 weeks of Advent to wait for the celebration of Christ's birth, so let us each week of Advent prepare our hearts for the celebration of Christmas. It is also a busy time of year as we prepare for Christmas with the busyness of shopping, decorating, baking and preparing food for the family gatherings. Let us take the Sundays of Advent to really prepare ourselves for the true celebration of Christmas – the glorious coming of that baby Jesus so long ago in Bethlehem, bringing light, joy, peace and hope into the world.

Church Chuckle

An Anglican priest was about to deliver his sermon. Approaching the microphone on the pulpit he tapped it and said 'There's something wrong with this mike.' Immediately came the response 'And also with you.'

Home burnt in Portugal Cove on Nov. 14th, housed Mr. John Fowlow, his partner, Jackie and his mother. The house burnt completely very quickly, especially with the very high winds we had that day. All their possessions were destroyed, and, no insurance was carried on the house, or its contents. Efforts are underway to help this family with donations of clothing and other items needed to get by temporarily. It is their hope to rebuild on that site again, with the help of friends and community. If you would like to contribute in any way please speak to Rev. Randy and he will find out what may be needed.
