

Dismissal Song

Go now in peace; never be afraid. God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

July, 2019 (Year C)

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk:

The months of July and August are slower paced in the life of the parish, as various church groups and activities recess for the Summer holidays. Over the next couple of months parishioners and clergy will take the opportunity to relax and spend quality time with family and friends. It may be vacations at home or abroad, it may be simply enjoying quiet time on the patio deck, it may be working on some at home projects that we never had time to start or finish during the past 10 months. There are many ways to relax and be renewed, and, we all have particular things that interest us, whatever your "thing" is make sure to include it in your lives over the next couple of months. We live in a very fast moving world, there are many things that add stress to our lives, and we need to find that time for renewal of mind, body and spirit. In the church we recognize that as well. We have many people involved in the life of the parish as volunteers who give so much of their time in the course of the year. These volunteers, I'm sure, don't consider what they do to be arduous tasks, but I assure them that what they do enriches immensely the life of St. Philip's parish. Without people giving their time and energy to the church we simply could not function effectively. When I attended the ordination of Charlie Cox (our Queen's College student this past Winter), the bishop of Central Newfoundland, The Rt. Rev. John Watton, in his homily stressed the importance of ordained ministry, but he went on to place an even greater emphasis on the ministry of all baptized Christians. This is a very important point for us to consider and always keep before us, that each one of us, by virtue of our baptism, has a calling to ministry in the church.

We are all servants of one another, and, individually and collectively we are servants of Christ. Whatever your area of service in our parish please remember that you are contributing your God-given gifts and talents to enhance and enrich our common life together as a parish. We recognize that everyone needs a break in order to be refreshed, renewed and re-energized for the coming year, therefore, it is also vital that the church provide this opportunity over the next couple of months. It is our prayer that by taking this time all our volunteer ministers (you are a minister by virtue of your baptism) will be ready and enthusiastic to get everything up and going again at St. Philip's parish. I also encourage others that might not be actively involved in the life of the parish to prayerfully consider your God-given gifts as well, and see how you can share those with everyone else in our parish. This invitation is extended to both adults and children because I know you all have so much to contribute to the church, and the wonderful thing is God will bless you abundantly as you exercise your gifts. May the Summer holidays provide you with much fun, relaxation, and quality family time. Be safe and be happy!

(Rev. Randy)

Other Notes

Please note that this bulletin will be the only one for the month. As mentioned above, the months of July and August are slower months in the life of the parish with most activities recessed, therefore we won't require a weekly bulletin. For the next 3 Sundays, this bulletin will also include the relevant collects and other prayers that change each week. If there are any items of information that arise they will be announced at the Sunday morning worship service.

Please pray daily the General Synod Collect. General Synod will meet in Vancouver July 10th – 16th. Please remember the bishops, clergy and lay people that will assemble from across our great nation to represent all Canadian Anglicans. They will need our prayers, and God's divine grace to do the work before them. One very important piece will be the Marriage Canon, and another will be the election of a new primate that will no doubt be vital as we chart the waters before us. We give thanks for Archbishop Fred's guidance in the past 10 years, and wish him and his wife well in their retirement. The theme for the 2019 General Synod is – "I have called you by name". Please make this special collect a part of your daily prayer life from now until the conclusion of the Synod.

Rector's holidays will be the month of August. During that time Rev. Randy will coordinate services and on-call emergencies, such as funerals, with our honorary associate clergy. If during the month of August you need to reach our clergy please call the church office and a voice recording will provide you with the necessary telephone numbers.

Baptism Sunday(s) in July will be on both July 21st and 28th. We don't normally have two Sundays in one month for baptism, however, during the Summer months we try to accommodate visiting family members. If anyone has a child for baptism on either of these Sundays please contact Rev. Randy to set-up the baptismal preparation. Except for extenuating circumstances there will not be a baptism service scheduled for August.

Collects & Prayers for
July 7th

Collect - Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of your children we do also for him. Give us the will to serve others as he was the servant of all who gave up his life and died for us, but lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer over the Gifts - God of heaven and earth, receive our sacrifice of praise and strengthen us for the perfect freedom of your service, through our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Prayer after Communion - O God, may we who have shared in holy things never fail to serve you in your world, and so come to the fullness of joy, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

July 14th

Collect - Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless until they find their rest in you. May we find peace in your service, and in the world to come, see you face to face; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer over the Gifts - Father, your word creates in us a yearning for your kingdom. Receive all we offer you this day, and keep us in your peace; for the sake of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

Prayer after Communion - Living God, in this sacrament we have shared in your eternal kingdom. Receive all we offer you this day, and keep us in your peace; for the sake of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

July 21st

Collect - Almighty God, your Son has opened for us a new and living way into your presence. Give us pure hearts and constant wills to worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

Prayer over the Gifts - O God, accept our praise and thanksgiving. Help us in all we do to offer ourselves as a true and living sacrifice; through Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

Prayer after Communion - O God, as we are strengthened in these holy mysteries, may our lives be a continual offering, holy and acceptable in your sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

July 28th

Collect - O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy, increase and multiply upon us your mercy, that with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Prayer over the Gifts - God of grace, accept all we offer you this day, as we look toward the glory you have promised. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord.

Prayer after Communion - God of grace, we have received the memorial of the death and resurrection of your Son. May your love, poured into us, bring us to your promises. We ask this in the name of our Redeemer Jesus Christ.
