From the Rector's desk:

In the gospel reading today there are a multitude of themes that can be drawn upon for in-depth theological reflection, such as good and evil, division and unity, faith or lack of, forgiveness of sins, the family of God, to name a few. In the present age, the lines of distinction and clarity often become blurry and confusing, and we are not sure of what is acceptable to God, or what God truly desires of us. In the Anglican way we have always used the tripod of Scripture, Reason and Tradition to govern our relationship and understanding of who God is, how God interacts with us, and how we discern the will of God in our lives. As I referenced in my reflection last week, faith is ever so fluid, because we believe in and serve a living God. God is present to us in every generation, we have the word of God, written and passed on to us, that describes how God was working in the lives of people in those generations, but for more than two thousand years, God has been very much at work as well. St. John 20 says that many other things were done and said by Jesus that are not written in this book... When the book of Revelation was written, and, included as the last book of the bible, it was not God's final word, for God has been talking to us ever since. When Jesus' last recorded miracle was written in St. John 21, the story of the second miraculous catch of fish on the Sea of Tiberias, it was not his last miracle, for we believe there has been millions of miracles since then, and we still live in the age of miracles. When a small child survives for days, and, is plucked alive and unharmed from the rubble of an earthquake, that is a miracle; when medical knowledge says nothing else can be done for the patient, but he/she against all odds and logic makes a full recovery, that is a miracle. God is not limited to any particular age or generation, so we must always be working on our faith, trying to find time and space to speak to, and hear the voice of God in this ever busy, and, often times crazy world. Sometimes it might seem that God is removed from the world, nowhere to be found, and doesn't care for us, but we must be assured that is never the case. Jesus said, Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age (Mt. 28:20) We have to use what is available to us to strengthen our faith and relationship with God, the recorded scriptures (which have to be studied intensely sometimes to truly capture what God is saying), the sacraments (especially Baptism and Eucharist) that truly provides opportunity to experience the living Christ in our lives, the Church, and our brothers and sisters in Christ. In the gospel reading Jesus says whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister. The challenges

Sunday School Summer closing will be held on June 17th, (Father's Day). The children will be participating in the morning worship, followed by a bbq and picnic. All children are encouraged to attend.

Next Sunday is also Father's Day, so we look forward to wishing all the dads a very happy Father's Day at that time. Father's Day, like Mother's Day, is so very special because they become Family Days, where we spend quality time together with those that are closest to us, and that is so important.

to living in faith are many, but, we do have the things available to us that are necessary to salvation, we just need to recognize who and what they are.

(Rev. Randy)

Our next Baptism Sunday will be June 24th. Anyone wishing to have their babies baptized, please contact Rev. Randy.

Our weekly Bible Study has now recessed until September. We will pick up with our same study by John Ortberg, If you want to walk on water you have to get out of the boat. As before, our study will be open to any interested.

Rev. Randy will be taking holidays from July 6th – 27th. During that time provision will be made for Sunday worship, and clergy will be available in cases of urgency. Remaining two weeks of holidays will be reserved for later.

Rev. Randy is always available to do the blessing of homes. As a church family, whenever we open a new worship space we have it blessed. Our homes also ought to be places of prayer and sanctity, so if anyone would like to avail of this ministry please speak to the rector. Some find this liturgy to be very meaningful, especially upon moving into a new home.
