

Collect for the Day: (In Unison): Eternal God, this holy night is radiant with the brilliance of your one true light. From the Rector's Desk

For the past four Sundays, we have been into the Season of Advent. The word "Advent" means "coming". We have been preparing ourselves for the coming of the Christ Child.

Tonight, this event has arrived and we have gathered here at our beloved church as a family to celebrate the birth of our

Christ-Child. I do welcome you and pray that our Christmas Eve services will be a blessing to you as we begin celebrating the twelve days of Christmas.

This is a special time of year for families because family members have come home to help celebrate this special season with you. We welcome those who are visiting with us on this Christmas Eve.

The church is like a family in many ways, we have our dislikes, disagreements, etc.; but at the end of the day we find forgiveness and love and move on to build on the solid foundation that MAINTENANCE FUND: We are now asking our parishioners to give monthly through the Maintenance Fund to help us low our debt on the new furnace. We have borrowed in the amount of $50,000.00 from the Bank of Montreal. This loan is out for seven years. We will be paying $653.93 per month starting on Dec.31st, 2016

Response after the Scripture Reading:

Reader:

For the Word of God among us;
For the Word of God within us;

Response: We give you thanks, O God.

Go now in peace; never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

Stewardship Thought for the Week

Little more needs to be said at offering time this day than to direct our attention to one bulletin cover. That's why our giving has powerful significance.

"Unto Us a Son is Given."

Church Chuckle

After hearing the Christmas story, and singing "Silent Night" a Sunday School Class was asked to draw what they thought the Nativity Scene might have looked like.

One boy did a good likeness of Joseph, Mary and the infant Jesus, but off to the side was a roly-poly figure. The teacher, afraid that he had somehow worked Santa Claus into the scene, asked him who that was. She wasn't sure whether she was relieved or even more worried when the boy replied, "Oh, that's Round John Virgin."

*We have hired a company to come by every two weeks to clean the boardroom, offices, foyer, bathrooms and the Parish Centre. The ladies of the parish are unable to do this work due to the large amount of usage for the building. Some said that they would give more to the weekly envelope to cover this cost because they were unable to come and clean. Your vestry is asking you to fulfil this promise by adding extra to your weekly envelopes.

has been given to us by Jesus Christ, whose birth we celebrate on this most Holy Night.

It is amazing to all of us that after 2000 plus years, we continue to celebrate an event that happened so long ago! Why? God showed his love to us and sent his Son into the world to bring redemption and hope to every man, woman and child from the stable to this generation. The story of the birth of Christ has remained the same, nothing has changed. The message of Christmas is simply that God loves you and sent his Son into the world as a baby for you. Our prayer this evening is that the Christ-Child will be reborn anew in your lives, that you will allow Him to come in and live with you forever. Christmas is more than one day, it consist of twelve days. I encourage you, over the next twelve days, to read from Scriptures the stories of the announcement of the birth to Elizabeth, and finally the story of the wise men coming and presenting gifts to the Christ-Child, which is old Christmas Day or the Feast of the Epiphany. That is the Christmas Story.

God sent his Son into the world to save us and this is the message of Christmas. So we pray tonight that He will be reborn in us and we will live for him and be faithful to our calling.

I like to say thank you for your work and ministry with us here at St. Philips. We encourage others to be more involved with us in 2017.

Joyce and I want to wish each and every one a Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year. May God richly bless you in the New Year with joy, happiness, peace and all the blessings of this life and the life to come?

Refugee
Committee Update

The five churches' committee continues to meet and plan in an effort to bring a refugee family to Newfoundland. We have been successful in raising the initial amount of money required to complete our application. Anyone wishing to donate can still do so by placing an envelope marked "Refugee Project" in the collection plate. This money will be used to help support the family once they arrive. A family has been identified, consisting of a mom, dad and young child. The family has suffered significant trauma and has been given some hope by our initiative. As with all such projects, there are road blocks and long waits. We ask for your prayers for this family and for God's direction and guidance upon all who are involved in processing this application.

An update will be provided to the congregations as the process unfolds.
