

Nov. 6th

Collect for the Day: (In Unison) - Eternal God, who caused all holy scriptures to be written for our learning, grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts: (In Unison) - Gracious God, your word to us is food indeed. Receive all we offer you this day, and let your loving kindness be our comfort, for the sake of Jesus Christ, your living word. Amen.

Prayer after Communion: (In Unison) - Living God, in the eucharist you fill us with new hope. May the power of your love, which we have known in word and sacrament, continue your saving work among us, and bring us to the joy you promise. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts: (In Unison) - Holy God, in this eucharist we renew our baptismal covenant. Help us, through our offering this day, to renounce all things that draw us from your love. This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector:

Greetings from your parish of St. Philip's, I trust you are well, and adjusting to cooler temperatures, as we head into winter. I have often reflected on the changing of seasons as they correlate to the changing seasons of our own lives, and as we get older, perhaps we reflect more. At the same time, there is an excitement about what lies ahead of us, an anticipation of what God may be leading us to. I hope we don't bemoan the passing of time, but, in a spirit of thanksgiving for blessings of the past, we eagerly look forward to what is to come.

We are just three weeks away from the beginning of a new liturgical church year, which always begins on the first Sunday of Advent (Nov. 27), and that means we are only about 6 weeks from Christmas. Advent is a time of preparation for Christmas, not commercially but spiritually, though it seems that the commercial emphasis often impedes spiritual preparation. At this time of year, I always think about the kind of world it was that the people were living in, as they anxiously awaited their messiah. I think about that young couple, Joseph and his very pregnant wife, Mary, as they made the 105 km trip from Nazareth to Bethlehem, perhaps alternately walking and riding a donkey. Joseph originated from Bethlehem, and was a descendent of King David, therefore he was obligated to return "home" to Bethlehem to register in the census. With their mode of transportation, and Mary's condition, it must have taken at least 5 or 6 days to reach their destination. When they arrive in Bethlehem there is no place to stay, others had gotten ahead of them with the influx of people for the census. I'm sure we have all experienced the frustration of arriving in a town or city, perhaps late at night, after driving many hours, only to find there aren't any available hotel rooms, they have all been taken up because of a major event in that town. I speak from experience, we experienced this, two or three times, with young tired and cranky boys in the back seat. So, we can imagine Joseph's frustration, and Mary's concern, as she could give birth anytime. Who knows, the long trip may have caused her to go into labor even earlier than anticipated.

Alas, the young child is born! Albeit, less than ideal conditions, and circumstances. The Saviour of the world, the King of kings, the light in the darkness, the long-awaited messiah, had arrived. God, incarnate, was now physically among us in the flesh, as a helpless and vulnerable baby. What necessitated the birth of Jesus was the sin of the world, people had strayed so far from God's plan and hope for humanity, that the only way to draw them back was to take on human form and come among us. I don't presume to know God's present or future plan for the world, but it does seem to me that somehow or other we have strayed away again. When we look at current world affairs, and as we view it through the eyes of our churches in the modern world, we call to relevance the verse from Isaiah 53: 6 – "All we like sheep have gone astray, we have turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all". Somehow or other, we have reversed some of what was accomplished when Jesus came into the world. It is true that the world has never been a place of utopia, for the forces of evil and darkness are always at work, but are we fighting against them less vigorously now? I suppose a good question for the church to ponder is – are we equipped to effectively fight the forces of evil, and are we good at deciphering what they are? Advent is a time for us all, both collectively as the church, and individual Christians, to wrestle with questions such as this, and determine what God may be calling us to do and to be in the world today? One thing is for sure, there is much to be done, and more than 2000 years later, in the words of Jesus, the harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few! Blessings!

Rev. Randy

Our Parish Vestry is engaged in the area of Mission. In accordance with diocesan direction, we want to look at ways in which we can ensure our parish remains viable and sustainable well into the future. We hope to be able to focus on some areas of parish life that we can strengthen and enhance. In accordance with our parish mission statement, we want to also look at ways we can be the church to the wider community. The mission of our parish is of importance to all of us, so we want to hear from any of our parishioners that might have ideas to share, that will grow our parish and enable us to do effective ministry in the church and in the community. If you have ideas to pass along to us, simply write them down and pass them along.

St. Philip's Mission Statement: God's people in the parish of St. Philip, in a covenant relationship with God, through baptism, are called:

- To be fishers of people, in response to the call of Jesus, in the power of the Holy Spirit.
- To be a House of Prayer.
- To be a Centre for Christian Teaching.
- To be Disciples in Learning.
- To be a fellowship of Loving and Sacrificial Service.
- To be witnesses to our Lord's love through word and example.

Go now in peace, in

The 2023 church calendars have arrived. Even though this year they have increased in price, we will still sell them for $5.00 each. They were never meant to be a fundraiser, so at $5.00 each we will break even. There is a limited number available and they can be purchased from the parish office.

The Christmas cards, depicting our church, produced by Dawn Cheeseman, are available again this year. A package of 5 cards is $10.00 if you would like to order your cards again this year please speak to Dawn at church or call her at 685-4851 and she will gladly deliver them. Last year $900 was raised from Dawn's project and all proceeds go to our ACW.

Children can now sign up to take part in the Christmas pageant. Even though our Sunday School hasn't officially started yet, we are preparing for a short program that the children can do at the Christmas Eve family service at 4:00 pm. Parts to be filled are as follows: MC, Leader, Narrator, Readers 1 & 2, Mary, Joseph, (maybe baby Jesus), Angels, Shepherds, Animals and townspeople.

Congratulations to Lillian Oliver who won the quilt. Thank you so much to the donor of the quilt, your donation raised nearly $900 for the church.

A message from our hospital chaplains – whenever you are admitted to one of our local hospitals, and would like to receive a visit from one of our Anglican chaplains, please register as "Anglican" and indicate at that time that you wish to see a chaplain during your stay. Unless you do this the chaplain may not know you are there.

If you would like to receive the rector's messages, bulletins and other parish information from time-to-time please provide him with your email address by contacting him at the following address: lockyerrandy@gmail.com

The 98.5 FM frequency is always in use whenever we are gathered for worship. If our numbers inside exceed the permitted numbers, there is still the ability to listen to the service through your car radio while in the parking lot of the church.

Bulletins will continue to be printed every second week for the foreseeable future. We do encourage parishioners to go online at: stphilipsanglicanchurch@nf.aibn to read the bulletins.

Now that our choir is up and going again we would love to welcome new members of all ages. It would be wonderful if we could have enough members to fill out the choir pews on both sides of the chancel. In addition to singing to the glory of God on Sunday morning it is also a time of fellowship and fun each week at practice.
