

Collect for the Day: (In Unison): Almighty God, you called John the Baptist to give witness to the coming of your Son and to prepare his way. Give your people the wisdom to see your purpose, and the openness to hear your will, that we too may witness to Christ's coming and so prepare his way; through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer over the Gifts: (In Unison): God of our salvation, accept all we offer you this day, and free us to worship you without fear, in holiness and righteousness of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer after Communion: (In Unison): We thank you, Lord, for your word and your table which give us the knowledge of salvation. Your compassion has broken on us like the dawn; guide now our feet into the way of peace. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord. Amen

Parish Cycle of Prayer: We pray for our parish families. (This week we remember): Wallace & Georgina Clarke, Debbie Collis, Carol & Darren Comerford, Richard & Sherry Connolly, Wendy Decker and their families.

A WARM WELCOME IS EXTENDED TO ALL OUR PARISHIONERS AND VISITORS WHO ARE WITH US TODAY. WE HOPE THAT GOD WILL BLESS US AS WE WORSHIP HIM HERE TOGETHER AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH.

From the Rector's desk:

I take the opportunity today to wish all the dads of our parish, and those visiting with us, a very Happy Father's Day! Yet another opportunity to celebrate the family, so, may this day be a blessing for all families. Like every other special occasion, Father's Day too can be overly commercialized, but somewhere in the midst of that be sure to spend that quality time with family. The most familiar story of how Father's Day originated is as follows: The first father's day was celebrated in Washington State on June 19th, 1910. A lady named Sonora Smart – Dodd came up with the idea of honoring and celebrating her father while listening to a Mother's Day sermon at church in 1909. Her dad, William Smart, was a veteran of the American Civil War, but was left a widower when his wife died while giving birth to their 6th child. He went on to raise the children by himself on their small Washington farm. To show her appreciation for all the love and hard work he gave them, Sonora thought there should be a special day to honor him, and all other dads in that situation. At first she thought June 5th, the anniversary of her dad's death, would be a good time to celebrate Father's Day, but, for logistic reasons, it had to be put off to the third Sunday of June. It started off slow at first, but, in 1924 President Coolidge recommended that Father's Day become a national holiday. No official action was taken. In 1966 Lyndon B. Johnson, by executive order, designated the 3rd Sunday in June as the official day to celebrate Father's Day. However, it wasn't until 1972, that Father's Day was officially recognized as a national holiday. Other countries, like Canada, also picked up on the idea of Father's Day. Today, we celebrate all our Fathers, those living and those who have passed on to eternal rest, thanking God for them, and their love which shaped, and, is shaping our lives today. Happy Father's Day, may you be blessed today with the love of family and the love of God, the Father of us all!

Other Notices

Confirmation classes are now recessed until September. Those preparing for Confirmation (Dec. 16th) are reminded to get their letters mailed off to Bishop Peddle very soon. As well, Rev. Randy wants to encourage church attendance at worship on Sunday mornings. Have a safe Summer!

(Humor) Just a little mixed up

Just a line to say I'm living
That I'm not among the dead
Though I'm getting more forgetful
And mixed up in the head.

I've got used to my arthritis
To my dentures I'm resigned
I can manage my bifocals
But oh God, I miss my mind.

For sometimes I can't remember
When I stand at the foot of the stairs
If I must go up for something
Or if I've just come down from there.

And before the refig, so often
My poor mind is filled with doubt
Have I just put food away, or
Have I come to take some out.

And there are times when it is dark
With my nightcap on my head
I don't know if I'm retiring
Or just getting out of bed.

So if it's my turn to write you
There's no need of getting sore
I may think that I have written
And don't want to be a bore.

So remember I do love you
And I wish you were near
But now it's nearly mail time
So I must say "Goodbye Dear."

There I stood beside the mailbox
With a face so very red
Instead of mailing you my letter
I opened it instead!

Dismissal Song:

Go now in peace; never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast strong and true. Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith and in love.

Jesus Calms the Storm

Complete the sentences by filling in the blanks with the correct words from the word bank at the bottom of the page.

As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side of the _____." So they took Jesus in the _____ and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed). But soon a fierce _____ came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with _____.

Jesus was _____ at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, "Teacher, don't you care that we're going to _____?"

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the _____ and said to the _____, "Silence! Be still!" Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you _____? Do you still have no _____?"

The disciples were absolutely terrified. "Who is this man?" they asked each other. "Even the wind and waves obey him!"

Rev. Randy will be taking holidays from July 6th – 27th. During that time provision will be made for Sunday worship, and clergy will be available in cases of urgency. Remaining two weeks of holidays will be reserved for later.

The Annual Flower Service will be held on July 29th, at 3 pm. This year Rev. Randy has decided to do the service in the afternoon so as to provide opportunity for those who may worship at other parishes in the morning to attend, as well as those who live outside the area. Weather permitting, we will do the service in the cemetery.

Rev. Randy is always available to do the blessing of homes. As a church family, whenever we open a new worship space we have it blessed. Our homes also ought to be places of prayer and sanctity, so if anyone would like to avail of this ministry please speak to the rector. Some find this liturgy to be very meaningful, especially upon moving into a new home.

The Bulletin today is given to the Glory of God and In loving memory of:

Phyllis Sharpe

July 2, 1956 – July 1, 1990

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die...” (Ecclesiastes 3: 1)

Lovingly remembered by her family, and forever in our hearts.

NOTICES

Dawn Cheeseman, and, Joyce Fewer, will soon be beautifying the site of the old church with shrubs and plants for the Summer season. If you would like to contribute to the cost in memory of loved ones please place your donation in a plain envelope and mark what it is for, with the names of loved ones, and place it in the collection plate.

Most church groups are closed off for the months of July and August, so there are not a lot of weekly activities taking place. Therefore, during these months the parish bulletins will be printed every second week on the following dates: July 1st, July 15th, July 29th, August 12th, August 26th. Weekly printing will resume on September 9th. If you have items to go into the bulletins please make sure to have it submitted before those dates.

Queen's College posters and brochures are now available in the foyer. This information contains all the courses and programs that will be starting up in the Fall. Queen's is much more than training people for ordination, it also offers many courses that are beneficial to lay people that are involved in their own parishes.

Lavrock Camp The registration forms for the Summer camps at Lavrock have been available for some time now. If there are any families that are in need of financial assistance to help send their children to camp, please see Rev. Randy immediately as the deadline to apply is June 4th.

Today, we welcome into the Church, and into the family of God, Claire Josephine Janice Tucker, and Jack Erikson Barrett, through the sacrament of baptism. Claire is the daughter of Samantha Mayo and Adam Tucker, and, Jack is the son of Pamela and Eric Barrett. We welcome them today and invite them to continue to be a part of our faith community at St. Philips. Baptism is the most important thing we can do for our children, and equally important is to enable them to live out their baptism in the church. We must, as parents, Godparents, and the whole church, pray for these children, that they may grow day by day in God's love and grace.
